FOR INCIPENT CONSUMPTION, We have a valuable remedy now WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. It is soothing and healing in its nature, and is admirably adapted to aiding and dissipating that annoying and distressing irritation which prevails at this season of the year. It cures colds, coughs, and catarrhs, brought on by the use of tobacco and cigars, and has the power of several cures which have been rarely cured by the use of this Balsam. Some two years since a friend was suffering under what was deemed to be incipient consumption—had a loss of appetite, night sweats, &c. By the use of the Balsam, he dispelled these symptoms—now enjoys a loss of appetite, night sweats, &c. The use of the Balsam, he depends upon, as an empermeator, and is now in the enjoyment of comparative good health.—New-England Washington, Boston.

LOST VOICE RESTORED!

New Haven, Jan. 19, 1851.

Mr. S. W. Vining, a well known and very creditable physician in relation to Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I take this opportunity of offering a word of thanks to you for your kind attention. A few moments since my wife's young son was so severely affected by a sudden cold, that he could not sleep, and suffered severely from the heat of the fever. His situation caused his friends much anxiety. Having heard your Balsam strongly recommended by those who had used it, I purchased a bottle of your agent in this place. She took a draught of it, and soon after completely recovered her voice, the pain subsided, and her health was soon fully restored.

(Signed), Yours truly, HENRY G. BRIGHTMAN.

REMEDY FOR COLUMBIAN LINAMENT

Without exception this invaluable compound is the greatest remedy in existence for the safe and speedy cure of Sprains, Swellings, Rheumatism, Bruises, &c. &c.

Certificates of the most remarkable cures can be seen at the agency, all speaking in the highest terms of its manifold virtues.

The author is from a person who was now daily to and from his business, a distance of 15 miles; he assures the proprietor that what he says in regard to the Linament, is not couched in language strong enough to express his feelings of the great benefit received from his use.

—New York, May 10, 1850.

"DEAR Sir—I give you my word to aid my testimony, of the very great and indefeasible benefit we have received from using your invaluable Linament. Last winter I was attacked with Rheumatism, which caused me to grow thin and weak, and the facilities which I had were lost. Finding myself growing still worse, I concluded to take a trip down the southern coast as far as Texas, thinking the change of climate would relieve me; but I returned worse than ever. Such a condition was I in, that I lost the use of my limbs; they were drawn out of joint, and I could not stand upright. I suffered so greatly as to resort to frequent narcotic potions in order to get temporary relief from my sufferings, which continued to increase. On the day of my arrival, at your Linament was presented to me by a girl, who said it was the special remedy for rheumatism, and I am sure it is. I apply it to my joints, and in two weeks I could walk or run without any difficulty. I will speak to the master, and will call on me, I will convince him that it has done for me even more than is described above.

Yours sincerely, GEO. W. BRADY, 29 Spring-st.

As a horse remedy it has attained great popularity as the owner of a large number have been cured.

Send by the druggist in bottles, extra large bottles, price 50 cents a package. At 135 Chatham-st., 505 Broadway, 20 Fulton-st., 71 Canal-st., 357 Broadway, &c. Courtauld, Wholesale orders addressed to WM H. HOYT 157 West Twenty-sixth-st., will be sent to all parts of the world.
